Library Director's report:

- A restroom renovation project progress report was shared, including construction and financial statuses and photographs. To date, the Bismarck Library Foundation, Inc. (BLF) has raised almost $400,000 for the project, with about $275,000 already received, and the remainder in pledges. Meetings with established donors will be completed by year's end, and funds have resulted from the donor letter sent.
- C. Kujawa compiled and shared staff input on the library's values, updated last year.
- City Forestry removed dead and unhealthy trees from the library grounds and trimmed others.
- After closing on Saturday, year-end building maintenance carpet cleaning will be performed.
- Storytimes with Mrs. Claus and photos with Santa ensure that all children have the opportunity to delight in the season.
- Winter Walk & Talk encourages fresh air walking and visiting, followed by hot drinks and additional visiting in the Missouri River Room.
- Twelve Days of Craft Kits, sponsored by Friends of the Bismarck Public Library, will be available starting December 19, 2025.
- The library is partnering in Vinterfest, a celebration of winter promoting educational, recreational, and cultural heritage.
- Stranger Things themed event will be held on Sunday, December 21, 2025, from 1:00pm-3:00pm.
- The library events calendar is a valuable resource for all programs and activities.

Report on Mobile Library Services:

- T. Hamre shared duties of his position, including shifts at the Adult Information Desk, processing interlibrary loans, and mascot performer.
- Mobile Library routes are in the city of Bismarck, primarily at, but not limited to, assisted living centers and afterschool programs.
- Materials are tailored to the interests of the patrons at the locations, and requests are welcomed.

Other Business:
